

Arrived

Miss Kathleen Parlow
The Homestead

Meldreth - Cambs -

---

England

Вскрыто военною цензурой.
Военный цензор № 448.

Вскрыто военною цензурой.
г. Петроградъ.
Военный цензор № 448.

Petrograd December 1st 1915 26, English Prospect.

My dear Kathleen;
I do hope this letter will find you at home, in your little, quiet house enjoying a well merited rest after your triumphal tour.
Your charming letter of October 6th I received a few weeks ago but I was not able to write you lacking energy of mind and - English no calumny. - I am about like you; I feel, I think, but when it comes to give a living expression of what I think, it is surely a failure.

But now I am less discouraged. - The Conservatory is getting on pretty well, and think about, I am giving to day my second Sonata Recital with a marvellous young girl - pianist, Miss

Irene Cunery, a Russian and since a week the small Hall of the Conservatory sold out which gives me a lot of trouble about friends having passed the time of securing tickets. -

Life is going on here as usual; Opera, Dramatic Theatres, Concerts all crowded more or less; only food and coals, firewood and other things necessary are awfully expensive. - Toscha has not yet arrived; he ought to be in Sweden. -

Let me have news from America about your activity.

And now I send you my best wishes and my heartiest Kisses, so to cleave you. -

L. v. Quer

Mrs. Stein sends best love